

DAVIS LEGACY SOCCER CLUB

Davis Legacy Soccer Club

For over 28 years, Davis Legacy Soccer Club has allowed young people the chance to compete throughout the United States. Many of these kids were given opportunities through scholarships with money raised at events like Barefoot on the Pitch and with generous donations by individuals. Davis Legacy alumni throughout Northern California and beyond venture back to watch tournaments as well as support the sponsors of the Davis Legacy Soccer Club -- including current MLS professional players Niko Hansen and Adam Jahn of the Columbus Crew, Jalil Anibaba of the New England Revolution along with many other successful alumni throughout the world who make an impact daily with knowledge they received from Davis Legacy Soccer Club.

Davis Legacy Soccer Club appreciates any and all the support that you can give young athletes the chance to succeed whether it is in the game of soccer or the game of life. Our club exists to provide the highest levels of quality soccer training for the players and to enhance their social/emotional and physical health, in a positive as well as safe environment.

Davis Legacy soccer is a 501(3) c non-profit organization dedicated to the development of youth soccer. Your tax deductible donation helps us to continue to offer high quality training and facilities for all members to enjoy. We greatly appreciate the support of our members and community alike.
